Location: LA , NYC, Atlanta, Denver

Position: Sales Representative

Job Description

Our client is a full service custom clothing company, specializing in custom suits and shirts for men and women. Using the finest fabrics from European mills, our clothing is made unique to each individual. Going beyond a traditional store front, a representative travels directly to the customer in the convenience of their home or office. We trust our representatives with high levels of customer service and valuable relationships with business professionals.

The Sales Representatives, referred to as "Wardrobe Consultants", build a clientele through proven sales techniques and strategies. With professional training, education, and sales resources, Wardrobe Consultants will see personal income grow while enjoying freedom and flexible hours. Opportunities for growth and leadership are available for ambitious and motivated individuals.

Desired Skills & Experience

- Self Motivated, goal oriented and entrepreneurial-minded
- Comfortable networking with and contacting new acquaintances
- Well spoken, prompt, professional, able to adapt to various settings
- High level of interpersonal and communication skills

*No prior fashion experience necessary as each Wardrobe Consultant will be thoroughly trained.

Compensation and Benefits

- Based on commission with a target average of $75k/annum
- Clothing allowances and monthly incentives
- Opportunities for growth and management opportunities
- Flexible scheduling

Interested candidates please send a CV/resume, a cover letter explaining your objectives.
